Dedication

Dear Parents,

As we go through life, we will encounter many people who will influence us in some way. But, without a doubt, the most influential of all have been our parents.

We realize that being a parent is no easy task. Parents must devote a tremendous amount of time and effort to raising their children and guiding them in the right direction as they become adults.

Throughout our years in school, our parents have supported and encouraged us in all of our activities. They have shown a great deal of patience in dealing with our many endeavors. Most importantly, they have taught us the importance of caring about each other.

Through times of good and bad, our parents always have shown their patience and understanding. They were always there when we needed them the most. To show our appreciation for all of their years of guidance, we dedicate the 1985 Bervalon to OUR PARENTS.

Lovingly,
Class of 1985

"Bervalon Queen"

The Bervalon staff consists of seniors who have been recommended by faculty members during their junior year. Those who have been selected are asked to write a brief paragraph on why they would like to participate on the staff and the contributions they would make. Editors are then selected and the year begins. The staff is broken down into six specialized sections. These sections include: Seniors, Faculty, Underclassmen, Activities, Sports, and Highlights. Each section is organized by a section editor. The Bervalon has various deadlines to meet throughout the year which keeps the staff on its toes. Many hours of their own time are often put in to the making the Bervalon a success. The putting together of a yearbook takes a lot of hard work and dedication and the outcome is a book of memories to last a lifetime.

Mountaineer staff visits WJAC-TV.

This year the Mountaineer staff was comprised of eleven students in grades eleven and twelve. These students, under the professional guidance of Rebecca Bower, selected Journalism as an elective. One major change in Journalism this year was its transformation from a three day elective to an actual class. Students in Journalism receive a grade just as in any other solid subject. Students are required to research and write articles for this school newspaper. These articles publicize school news and events. This is an excellent course for those students who are interested in pursuing a career in journalism or media.

This year, the golf team was not up to par. Coach Madey's team lacked the needed experience. The team had only two returning golfers, Fred Hickman and Chris Barkley, who are both seniors. However, the other members gained valuable experience that may eventually lead to success in the future. Next year, the team plans to have more practices in order to be better prepared to win. Coach Madey hopes that there will be more interested players that will participate next year.

The theme chosen by the student council for this year's Homecoming was the "Olympics." Each class prepared a float pertaining to this theme. The junior float won first prize, the freshman float second, the sophomore's third, and the senior's fourth. Halftime was highlighted by the crowning of the Queen. A dance was held afterwards in honor of the Queen and her court.

CLASS HISTORY

On June 10, 1985, the members of the Senior Class of Berlin Brothersvalley High School stood as one for the last time. In each of our minds, the memories of the good times we shared together overshadowed thoughts of what lay ahead.

In eighth grade, Amy Cugini and Don Williams were chosen by our class as Outstanding Girl and Boy. Jeff Leydig was the recipient of the Eighth Grade Math Award.

In our freshman year, we elected our first class officers: Don Williams, President; Chris Wittmann, Vice President; Gail Phennicie, Secretary; and Stephanie Lehman, Treasurer. We also selected Stephanie Lehman as our first Homecoming Attendant; her escort was Chris Wittmann. The theme of our freshman float was "The Marines Always Faithful," which took second place. Gina Berkley was presented with the ninth grade English award.

In our sophomore year, we elected Owen Caton—President, Don Williams—Vice President, Stephanie Lehman—Secretary, and Bill Farber—Treasurer. Stephanie Lehman was elected our sophomore Homecoming attendant; her escort was a member of the Fife and Drum Corp. Our float, entitled "Spring", took third place. Amy Cugini, Gina Berkley, and Don Williams tied for the Highest Scholastic Sophomore award.

As juniors we selected the following officers: Carol Vessa, President; Jeff Leydig, Vice President; Gail Phennicie, Secretary; and Stephanie Lehman, Treasurer. We kicked off the year with a magazine sale to raise money for our Junior/Senior Prom. Our Homecoming attendant was Gina Berkley; her escort was Steve Donner. Our Homecoming float, "Space Travel", took first place. Another highlight of our junior year was planning and organizing our Junior/Senior Prom. The prom was held at Hidden Valley on May 11, 1984. The theme was "Heaven". The junior attendants were Gail Phennicie and Gina Berkley. Our Junior Class Play was entitled "Feudin', Fightin' and Fussin' ". The eleventh grade History award was given to Betsy Ogburn. The Best Offensive Player and Most Rebounds award in basketball were given to Kelly Bittner.

As seniors, we realized that our memorable years at BBHS are coming to an end, and new opportunities in life are just beginning. For the last time, we elected our class officers: Carol Vessa—President, Daryl Sarver—Vice President, Tammy Leister—Secretary, and Ralph Sredy—Treasurer. We chose Tammy Leister as our Homecoming Queen; she was escorted by Bill Farber. Our Senior Attendants were Tammy Kelly, escorted by Brad Shober; and Gina Berkley, escorted by Brad Brown. Our senior float was entitled "Winter Olympics" and took fourth place. Gina Berkley was chosen as the FFA Sweetheart. The Senior Class Play, "A Token of Our Esteem", was presented in November of 1984. Mary Lynn Cotter was chosen to represent our school in the annual Maple Queen Contest. Our Junior/Senior Prom was held at the Hidden Valley Resort on May 10, 1985. The theme of the prom was "One More Night". We selected Tammy Smith as our Prom Queen, accompanied by Gina Berkley and Tammy Leister as her attendants.
